Considerably more than half of the people of the world live in the countries which border on the Pacific Ocean. The latest available statistics, furnished by the United States Department of Com-merce and Labor, give these countries, exclusive of the United States, an area exclusive of the United States, an area of 17,096,060 square miles and a population of 304,363,000. Of this foreign Pacific trade the United States enjoys nearly one-fifth, the total being $718,000,000 annually, of which $396,000,000 is represented by imports and $322,000,000 by exports.
